NOTICE OF VACANCY

HIGH SCHOOL PRINCIPAL Robertson High School

The Las Vegas City Schools is seeking a dynamic, energetic and experienced principal to serve as the instructional leader for Robertson High School. This is an extraordinary opportunity for a results-oriented administrator who thrives in a challenging work environment, and who can lead and manage by example with high standards for all. Robertson High School is a ninth through twelfth grade secondary program, consisting of approximately 530 students and 63 members of the faculty and staff.

Robertson High School provides diverse programs, including a strong college-preparatory academic program, separate Freshman Academy, exemplary vocational and music education programs and a wide range of strongly competitive athletics and activities.

The school serves the community of East Las Vegas and borders West Las Vegas Schools, Wagon Mound Schools and Mora Independent Schools. The school resides in the heart of the Las Vegas Historical District, and is part of the Las Vegas City Schools, with a total district enrollment of approximately 2,000 students.

Qualifications:

- ✓ Hold a New Mexico administrative License.
- ✓ Master's Degree and high school teaching experience.
- ✓ Successful administrative experience at the high school level.
- ✓ Demonstrate skills in working in a multi-cultural setting, with knowledge and experience working with special education and bilingual education – Bilingualism Preferred.
- ✓ Excellent communication and interpersonal skills, and a proven ability to collaborate with staff, parents, community and the administrative team.
- ✓ Proven record of success in implementing and managing educational change, including knowledge of best practices in professional development.
- ✓ Knowledge and successful experience in using data to improve academic achievement.
